Details:-

We have been made aware of a possible telephone scam

You may receive an automated call from someone acting as your internet provider who say that they will terminate your internet in the next 24hours due to hacking activity on the internet IP address, as a result they need to take action.

You will be asked to press 1 to speak to a member of staff or press 2 for anything else.

PLEASE HANG UP!

Once you have hung up please use a different phone to call your internet provider to confirm that was not them, you can also call Sussex Police on 101 if you are in doubt, but always use a different phone as scammer may still be listening.
